

Master of Education – Inclusive Education (30h)

---

The Master of Education in Inclusive Education program is intended for individuals possessing some background in inclusive schooling and wishing to prepare for leadership roles in the area of inclusive education.

Requirements for All Students:

- Core Courses (12h)

EDUC 5063 Foundations of Inclusive Education

EDUC 50H3 Introduction to Disability Studies (Pre-req/Co-req: EDUC 5063)

EDUC 5303 Principles of Assessment for Education

EDUC 5513 Research Design in Education or EDUC 50G3 Research Literacy (for non-thesis students)

Electives

- Non-Thesis Students (18h);

- Thesis students (12h)

Elective 1 (3h)

Elective 2 (3h)

Elective 3 (3h)

Elective 4 (3h)

Elective 5 (3h) – non-thesis students only

Elective 6 (3h) – non-thesis students only

Thesis Students: - Requirements (9h)

EDUC 5113 Qualitative Research in Education (Pre-req: EDUC 5513) or EDUC 5523 Educational Statistics

EDUC 5966 Graduate Thesis (6h) (Pre-req: EDUC 5113 or EDUC 5523)

Note:

It is the student's responsibility to monitor their program and to ensure that they have met degree requirements.

---

For additional information, please refer to:

Acadia University Graduate Studies

<http://gradstudies.acadiau.ca/home.html>

Acadia University School of Education

<https://med.acadiau.ca/home.html>

<http://education.acadiau.ca/graduate-programs.html>